The library of templates fits your business rules and needs, uses your preferred terminology and is fully customisable. Faster workflows and fewer errors makes your case initiation process more productive.

From scanner to case system

Your scanned documents can go directly to the appropriate case or to a supervisor for routing. This feature saves time can prevent routing or filing errors.

You probably have hundreds or thousands of active cases under management. With Converga Case Management, you'll always know which are the most critical, which require further processing and can prioritise the workload to meet your needs. Announcements are always accessible to keep your case workers informed of critical information. Converga acts as a single source to manage documents, routing, reviews and approvals. Business rules changing? Not a problem

Converga's rules-based system is fully configurable by business users. No programming is necessary, changes are made through an intuitive pull-down configuration. When your process or workflow changes, your Converga solution will quickly change with it.

Every action taken is date and time stamped and labeled with the person making the change. Integrated accountability aids in regulatory compliance and reduces potential for errors, skipped steps or fraud.
